18 This pro se habeas action was filed on October 19, 2011. On that same day, petitioner 19 was notified that he had neither paid the filing fee nor filed an application to proceed in forma
20 pauperis ("IFP"). A copy of the court's form for IFP applications was provided with the notice
21 along with a return envelope. Petitioner was informed that if he did not either pay the $5.00
22 filing fee or file a completed IFP application within thirty days the case would be dismissed.
23 Along with the notice, he was mailed a copy of the IFP application, instructions for completing 24 it, and a pre-paid return envelope. The instructions indicated that in order to complete the IFP 25 application, he was required to submit a certificate of funds completed and signed by a prison 26 official as well as a statement of his prison trust account showing transactions for the last six
